SECTION 5: GENERAL PENALTY FOR VIOLATIONS OF CODE

Whenever in this code or in any ordinance of the city, an act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense or a misdemeanor, or wherever in such code or ordinance the doing of an act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, and no specific penalty is provided therefor, the violation of any such provision of this code or any such ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00), except for violations of municipal ordinances that govern fire safety, zoning and public health and sanitation, including dumping of refuse, in which cases a fine not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) is hereby authorized; provided, however, that no penalty shall be greater or less than the penalty provided for the same or similar offense under the laws of the state. Each day any violation of this code or of any ordinance shall continue shall constitute a separate offense. Having grown up near Augusta, Ga., Pat Dye knows something about Amen Corner, the famous stretch of holes 10-11-12-13 where the Masters golf tournament often is decided.

According to Dye, his the sixth-ranked Auburn Tigers, 6-0-1, are about to begin their own version of Amen Corner with games 8-9-10-11. It starts Saturday night against No. 10 Florida (5-2), followed by No. 4 Florida State (6-1), No. 12 Georgia (6-2) and No. 16 Alabama (5-2).

Florida is the only Southeastern Conference team to have a winning record (4-2) over the Tigers in Dye's previous six years at Auburn, so it's no wonder that he says, "We haven't played a team like Florida yet. I think Florida is better than Tennessee. I think we have four teams left to play that are better than Tennessee (Auburn and Tennessee tied 20-20 in September)."

Florida has won three in a row from Auburn but the Tigers are a 3 1/2-point favorite. The pick is ...
