a rushing touchdown this season) and that has Notre Dame coach Lou Holtz perplexed. The Fighting Irish, particularly one Rocket Ismail, have Southern Cal coach Larry Smith scared.

Or so they said as the top-ranked Irish and No. 9 Trojans prepared for the renewal of a traditional rivalry that has had a decidedly Notre Dame drift in recent years.

And speaking of drifts, a chance of snow was predicted for South Bend, Ind., on Saturday, and that should throw the odds even more in Notre Dame's favor.

"I imagine it's going to be cold, and I'm not too familiar with cold weather," Trojans quarterback Todd Marinovich said.

Notre Dame quarterback Tony Rice has thrown for only two of Notre Dame's touchdowns this season. The rest have been scored on the ground, including eight by Anthony Johnson and five by Ricky Watters.

"We're going to have to throw the football," Holtz said. "But I've got to be honest, throwing the football is not our strong suit."

Is Rice worried?

"If they stop one, we just have to go to the other," he said. In other words, no.

While all eight of the TDs against Southern Cal this year have been on passes, the Trojans probably have yet to face the likes of the speedy Ismail, who runs, catches passes and returns kicks. That fact is not lost on Smith.

"It's scary," Smith said. "It's really scary when you've got to kick the ball, and he's back there."

The Irish (6-0) take an 18-game winning streak into this game, and they have beaten Southern Cal six in a row. The Trojans have won five straight since losing their opener to Illinois.

In other games involving ranked teams, it will be Kansas at No. 3 Colorado, No. 4 Nebraska at Oklahoma State, No. 5 Michigan at Iowa, No. 6 Tennessee vs. No. 10 Alabama at Birmingham, Texas at No. 7 Arkansas, No. 11 Auburn at No. 14 Florida State, No. 12 North Carolina State at Clemson, and No. 13 Illinois at Michigan State.

Also, No. 22 Arizona at No. 15 Washington State, Southern Methodist at No. 16 Houston, Cincinnati at No. 18 West Virginia, No. 19 Air Force at Texas Christian, New Mexico at No. 20 Florida, Texas-El
